CHIEF SECRETARY, 14 FEB 1951 GOVT. OF MYSORE.

Sir,

Subject:- APPOINTMENT OF HONORARY PHYSICIANS/SURGEONS ON THE PERSONAL STAFF OF THE PRESIDENT OF INDIA.

I am directed to state that vacancies exist for four officers from the Civil Medical Services for appointment as Honorary Physicians/Surgeons on the Personal Staff of the President, and to request that your Government may kindly forward the name of a Civil Medical Officer who is outstanding in the profession, with high academic qualifications and long service, and is considered worthy of being appointed on the Honorary Personal Staff of the President.

2. These appointments are of the nature of a personal distinction and honour conferred by the President. Like other Honorary Personal Staff, they will also not ordinarily be called upon to perform any special duties, but whenever they happen to be in the same station which is visited by the President, they will be accorded certain privileges of attendance on the President.

3. It will be appreciated if arrangements are made to forward the name of such a Medical Officer so as to reach this office not later than the 28th of this month. A pro-forma for filling in the details of the officer is given overleaf. Besides a brief summary of Record of Service, Confidential Reports on the recommended officers, in triplicate, should please be sent.

Yours faithfully,

for (B. Chatterjee) Colonel,
MILITARY SECRETARY TO THE PRESIDENT.

Dear Sri Matthan,

Sub.- Appointment of Honorary Physicians/ Surgeons on the personal staff of the President of India.

With reference to your D.O. letter No.16753/CB. dated 17-2-1951 on the above subject, I write to state that the proposal called for by the Military Secretary to the President is in the nature of conferring an Honour on some senior officer of distinction and merit for services rendered. At present I am unable to select any senior officer of such outstanding distinction who can be recommended for the post of Honorary Physician or Surgeon on the personal staff of the President.

It is however for the consideration of Government to suggest the name of any senior officer of the Medical Department as a matter of appreciation of his services than as anything else, as these appointments are purely of a honorary nature.

I am therefore unable to propose the name of any officer in this behalf.

Yours sincerely,

9. Experience in Hospital administration.	Has not been in charge of any hospitals.
10. Experience of Public Health administration	Vide No.7
11. What are the salient points in his character which affect his efficiency in an administrative capacity.	He is a sportsman and exhibits the same sporting outlook in his professional work as well. He is not dogmatic in his views. He is prepared to take the view points of others if they are reasonable, and modify his own. His convictions are honest and he expresses his opinions without fear or favour, always keeping himself within the limits of decorum. There is Worldly wisdom in his approach to practical problems dealing with men and matters; and on account of sound knowledge in his own subject, his unblemished character, high sense of duty, integrity, cheerful and optimistic outlook he has ~~commanded~~ Commanded the regard and respect from his colleagues and subordinates.

12. Do you consider him fitted in every respect for employment as an Administrative Officer.

I do.

13. Any further remarks.

This officer has had no experience in curative medicine as he has always been in the Public Health Department. If this is no dis-qualification, I feel that he is well fitted for the post referred to in your letter.

Very popular.

An M.R.C.P. of London.

A very efficient and popular physician. The public and the patients like him.

One of the best officers of the Department thoroughly dependable and competent.

1942-43:

Able and intelligent physician.

Very popular .

An M.R.C.P. of London. Has been Professor of Medicine for 4 years in the Mysore University.

A very efficient and popular physician. The public and the patients like him.

1943-44:

An able and intelligent medical man.

An M.R.C.P. of London.

Has been Professor of Medicine for four years.

A very efficient and Popular Physician. The patients and the public like him.

A very ~~good~~ hard working, and reliable Officer. He is the physician with the widest knowledge and experience in Bangalore.

1944-45.

Not trained in Surgeon.

An M.R.C.P. of London. Has been Professor of Medicine in Mysore for two years.

Has the interest of the Institution at heart.

Very efficient and popular. The public of Bangalore like him.

A deputation to foreign countries to study cardiology will be of so much more benefit to him.

1945-46:

An able, intelligent and popular physician.

An M.R.C.P. of London.

The public like him very much. It would be useful if he is sent to England and America to study the latest advances in Heart diseases and also to select and learn the technique of using the up-to-date instruments used in Cardiology.

With the clinical experience he has had, he would greatly benefit by a visit to foreign medical centres.

1946-47:

An able and efficient physician.

An M.R.C.P. of London. Has been Professor of Medicine for 4 years.

An efficient and popular physician. He is liked by the public.

He is now on deputation for studying recent advances in Cardiology.

1947-48:

Dr. B.Venkatasubba Rao has acquited himself as an excellent Physician and as a very good teacher. He returned recently from U.S. & U.K. after visiting the Cardiac Clinics in those countries. He is the Chief Physician, Victoria Hospital and Lecturer in Medicine. He is extremely popular is easily available to the poor and rich alike. His character is excellent. He is a Member of the Rotary Club and the Freemasons Lodge.

He is a kind and good Officer and he ~~xxx~~ deserves promotion. It is a pity that his merits are not fully appreciated and his pay is kept so low. As the Chief Physician of the biggest institution in the State, his pay is ridiculously low. His promotion is due and is kept pending for a good long time. His status must be raised soon.

1948-49.

Dr. Venkatasubba Rao is the well-known popular physician of the Victoria Hospital. He is extra-ordinarily counteous, painstaking and active. He is one of the busiest Officers of the Institution. The members of the staff - one and all - love him and respect him. Nothing is too small for him and no body is too low. He is ever attentive. He returned from the States only recently and ~~his~~ busy fitting up his Cardiology Department which will be a great asset to Bangalore and the State. He is a very keen teacher and students flock to his clinics. He is over worked. Nearly more than half the hospital is under his care. What he needs is an efficient staff. He is fit for promotion.

1949-50:

A very efficient and capable physician, and a very good teacher. He is known for his courteousness. He is very popular and is wanted by one and all. He is very regular in his work. Every body that comes in contact with him likes him and respects him. He has not been in charge of any administrative Unit as yet. His character is good. He is a Cardiologist and is in charge of the Cardioc Block of the Victoria Hospital. He is fit for promotion.
